Fruit d'Or

Where nature does it better.

We choose the best place on Earth to grow our northern berry crops.

Just fruit. Nothing more. Nothing less.

We never « went organic ». We started out this way.

Picked with care. Processed with love.

We’ve fine tuned our processes to bring out all the natural goodness of the fruit.

Our berries never leave our care.

We pamper our berries every step of the way, from field to package.

NURTURED TO PERFECTION

It's the simple everyday things that make our berries so tasty, healthy, and give them the perfect texture. Each parcel of land we farm with care and respect. Each weed we pull by hand. Each extra day we wait to ensure crops are harvested at peak ripeness. Each minute saved between field and freezer. Each unwanted substance detected and eliminated. And each delicious bite our customers enjoy.
